Jeremiah's Questions

Jeremiah's Conclusion
3:37-40, 25-26

I am going to swallow my pride, confess my sin and turn to God. He is my only chance.

Jeremiah's Key Truth

If my wrecked mind is left alone to determine truth, my soul will perish. But if I start with the soul and not the mind, it will result in the salvation of my soul and my mind, and I will find the hope, purpose and meaning that the Lord intended for me to have.

Jeremiah's Confession
3:22-24, 32

- The Lord's steadfast love never stops.
- The Lord's mercies are always new and never end.
- The Lord's faithfulness is greater than anything else.
- I have an eternal inheritance with the Lord.
- When the Lord causes grief, it is so that we will turn to His love.

Jeremiah's Prophecy
3:28-32
