Entreat the Favor of God
Malachi 1:6-11

Does God have particular methods within which He works?

Are there commands and principles by which we gain or lose the blessing and favor of God?

God is at work in the world to affect our lives through nations.

In the Church Age, God works primarily through the church to accomplish His kingdom goals.

Churches are made weak or strong by the fabric of their families.

Families are stronger when marriages are stronger.

The number one, single most important factor in determining if a marriage (and consequently a family) has the favor of God is the spiritual godliness of the husband/father.

What are the signs of the spiritual godliness of a man?

- A godly man understands honor.
- A godly man understands that he may stand alone.
- A godly man understands the principles by which God works.
